THERE are women everywhere who suffer almost constantly because they cannot bring themselves to tell all about their ills to a physician.

Such women can surely explain their symptoms and their suffering by letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for the confidence reposed in her has never been violated. Over a million women have been helped by her advice and medicine.

A WOMAN HELPS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham in attending to her vast correspondence is assisted by women only. If you are ill, don't delay. Her reply will cost you nothing and it will be a practical help as it was to MISS ELLA E.

BRENNER, East Rochester, Ohio, who says: "I shrunk from the ordeal of examination by our physician, yet I knew I must have treatment. My troubles were backache, nervous tired and feeling, painful menstruation and leucorrhoea. I am so grateful to you now that I am willing to have my name published to help other girls to take their troubles to you. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound used as you wrote me has made me entirely well and very happy. I shall bless you as long as I live."

Mrs. Pinkham receives thousands of such letters from grateful women.

MISS NELLIE RUSSELL, of 138 Grace St., Pittsburg, Pa., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham says: "From childhood I suffered from kidney trouble and as I grew older my troubles increased having intense pain running from my waist to my womb and the menses were very painful. One day, seeing your advertisement in one of our papers, I wrote to you.

"When your reply came I began taking your Compound and followed your advice and am now in perfect health, and would advise any lady rich or poor to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I can praise above all other remedies. It is a wonderful help to women."

Red to the Large. Teacher—What was the largest steamer ever launched? Class—The Great Eastern. Teacher—Correct—Can any of you tell me about when it was built? Boy—I don't know 'xactly, but I saw a picture of it, with a lot of people around, 'an' it was in the time o' hoop skirts.—Good News.

—The busy bee works systematically as if under military discipline. Pollen for "bee bread" has to be secured as well as honey for a rainy day—or for those humans who ruthlessly take from the bees the reward of their hard-earned labors. But a recent author asserts that when a bee starts from the hive for pollen not the sweetest nectar will tempt the creature from his task, while the honey gatherer does nothing else but gather sweets till the day's labor ceases.

—Dr. Titus M. Coan, who knows the Hawaiian queen, says in the New York Morning Journal: "She is a bright and cultivated woman. An excellent diplomat is attributed to her. A foreign diplomat, conversing with her on the subject of the mixed races in Hawaii, said: 'But your majesty surely has no white blood in your veins.' 'Indeed I have white blood in my veins,' said the queen. 'My grandfather ate Capt. Cook.'"

—A Scottish gentleman had a dispute with a London cabman over an eighteen-penny fare. He had offered a shilling only, and the cabman had remonstrated with him. Drawing himself up with dignity, he said: "Eh, mon, but I think ye dinna ken whom ye're speaking to! I'm the MacIntosh!" The cockney was not properly impressed; he retorted sharply: "I don't care if you're the Humbrella; I mean to have that sixpence!"

—A commercial traveling man says that the custom of "tipping" waiters, porters, barbers and others costs not less than one dollar a day "on the road." If his "tips" were very moderate in amount in advance the aggregate, he declares, be double the sum named, even by charging them up to "hotel" expenses.
